GREETINGS:

By virtue of the powers vested in me, I proclaim the 13th day of September, 2009 as Prince Hall Americanism Day.

On this day we celebrate the achievements and contributions of our society in helping to make America a better place for all citizens. We also honor the birth of our founder Prince Hall, a Patriot and Advocate for civil liberties and the abolition of slavery, who was on the scene at the birth of this great nation.

An appropriate program will be conducted under the auspices of the Prince Hall Americanism Day Committee, in the William E. Reed Auditorium, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 24 Washington Street, Dorchester, Massachusetts 02121, beginning at 3:00 p.m.

All Master Masons are to assemble at Franklin Park, at Blue Hill Avenue and Columbia Road at 2:15 p.m., and depart at 2:30 p.m. Route of procession: down Blue Hill Avenue to Washington Street, right on Washington Street to the Temple.

Take due notice thereof and govern yourself accordingly. Issued under my hand and seal this 1st day of August, A.D. 2009, A.L. 6009.
